Healthy Families
of Rensselaer County

Supporting you in your most important role ...
being a parent.

Healthy Families of Rensselaer County brings the support to you!

- Our assessment service helps you identify the successes and challenges that are unique to your family. After the assessment, you are provided personalized referrals that meet your family's needs and goals.
- Through our home visiting service, you receive information and support that meets the needs of your family on a regular basis. This service is offered long-term.

Healthy Families of Rensselaer County provides:

- In-home family assessments
- Assistance in the planning for the arrival of your baby
- Regularly scheduled home visits with a trained family support worker
- Information about infant and child development
- Fun activities that nurture the parent/child relationship
- Developmental screening
- Information and referrals to community agencies (such as job training, ESL classes, legal services, GED preparation classes, medical insurance and much more!)
- Ronald McDonald House Charities Family Resource Center (home visiting families gain in office access to computers!)
- Adults & Children Together (ACT) Against Violence Parenting Class (home visiting families learn how to teach children non-violent ways to resolve conflict.)

Personalized for your family

At Healthy Families of Rensselaer County, we support parents as they work on goals that are important to their family. We collaborate with area hospitals, doctors, schools and community agencies to help individuals feel confident and enthusiastic about their role as parents.

You and your family are eligible to enroll if:

- You or your partner are pregnant or if you are parenting a baby who is younger than 3-months-old.
- You live in Rensselaer County.
